An Evening with Georgia: Georgia O’Keeffe Museum and Georgia Restaurant to Offer an Evening of Art and Fine Dining

The evening of Wednesday, March 18, 2015, starts with a glass of champagne and a private viewing at the Museum, followed by a prix fixe dinner next door at Georgia Restaurant.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: February 13, 2015—Santa Fe, New Mexico—Georgia O’Keeffe Museum and Georgia Restaurant will offer “An Evening with Georgia” on Wednesday, March 18, 2015. The evening of art and fine dining will begin with an after-hours private viewing at the Museum, from 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., accompanied by a glass of champagne. After a tour of the current exhibitions, patrons will walk next door to Georgia Restaurant for a prix fixe dinner. $65 per person includes Museum admission, wine at the Museum and the prix fixe dinner at Georgia (not included are wine, tax and gratuities with dinner at Georgia).

Advance reservations are required. Please book online at www.okeeffemuseum.org/evening.

“We feel this will be an intimate way to experience the Museum and its exhibitions,” said Mara Harris, marketing manager at Georgia O’Keeffe Museum.

Wine for the Museum tour will be provided by local boutique wine distributor Vin Garage. “Finding the perfect wine or champagne for an occasion is my passion,” said Vin Garage Owner Boo Frith. “I am providing a bold, crisp Spanish Pinord Spumante Brut to accompany the stark New Mexico landscapes in the current Modernism Made in New Mexico exhibition.”

“We believe our contemporary American cuisine is the perfect complement to Georgia O’Keeffe’s work,” said Lloyd Abrams, one of the owners of Georgia Restaurant. “We look forward to sharing our vision of an elegant dinner to accompany incredible artwork.”

Georgia O’Keeffe Museum will be exhibiting “Modernism Made in New Mexico” until April 30, 2015 and “Georgia O’Keeffe: Ghost Ranch Views,” until March 22, 2015. “New Photography Acquisitions” will open March 27 and continue to September 26, 2015.
ABOUT GEORGIA O’KEEFFE MUSEUM: To inspire all current and future generations, the Georgia O’Keeffe Museum preserves, presents and advances the artistic legacy of Georgia O’Keeffe and modernism through innovative public engagement, education, and research. Opened in Santa Fe, New Mexico in 1997, the Museum counts O’Keeffe’s two New Mexico homes as part of its extended collection. The Museum’s collections, exhibitions, research center, publications and educational programs contribute to scholarly discourse and serve a diverse audience. ABOUT GEORGIA RESTAURANT: Georgia occupies what was originally two United States Army officer’s quarters built at the cusp of the 19th and 20th centuries. Georgia is proud to serve contemporary American cuisine in three dining venues: the tavern, patio, and dining room – each with their own unique ambiance. The tavern provides a warm, nostalgic atmosphere, with all the architectural elements of the original wood and fully exposed brick. The patio is designed for guests to delight in Santa Fe’s glorious weather, nestled in the historic charm of Santa Fe architecture, and veiled by the canopy of trees that date to the construction of the building. The stylish dining room is fully restored to the elegance of a Victorian mansion, ringed with supple, leather banquettes, allowing guests to dine and enjoy an intimate evening with family and friends. Georgia is located at 225 Johnson Street, next door to the iconic Georgia O’Keeffe Museum. www.GeorgiaSantaFe.com

ABOUT VIN GARAGE: VIN Garage is a boutique wine and spirit distribution company located in Santa Fe, New Mexico and headed by Boo Frith. Its objective is to be sales and promotion driven, focusing on strong customer service. The company is also very "value" oriented; sourcing wines that give the customer "a lot of juice for the buck." Our portfolio is small, but growing, and we'll never be a company that picks up labels just for the sake of keeping them from another distributor. Staying small will keep our eye on the prize - customer service. We source out our delivery to a professional logistics company. This means no need to keep vehicles or staff on call or on the payroll, thus keeping our costs down, and passing those savings on to the retailer or restaurant. VIN garage stands for value without compromising quality, and when we say customer service, we mean that too. Contact: Boo Frith (505) 440 – 9926.
