

Call for Teaching Artist Proposals

Adult Studio Classes | O'Keeffe Welcome Center in Abiquiu

As part of an ongoing initiative to collaborate with creatives based in Abiquiu and Rio Arriba County, the O'Keeffe Welcome Center seeks proposals from area artists for studio classes, and/or workshops for adults that can be hosted in the Center's community spaces.

The Welcome Center is specifically seeking proposals for one-time class sessions that can be conducted in 3.5 hours or less on Saturdays or Sundays. Workshop proposals can be for any medium and should be described to reflect the appropriate level of experience expected from participants (i.e. beginner, intermediate, advanced). Proposed class topics should also connect with Georgia O'Keeffe's artistic vision, philosophies, and/or themes that relate to the history of New Mexico and the New Mexican landscape.

To submit a proposal for consideration, please review the following requirements and instructions.
